CHILDREN'S HOME FAIR.

Opening Day of the Great Institution.

Description of the Interior of the Home—Full List of the Names of the Ladies in Attendance.

To-day is the opening day of the Children's Home Fair, at the Home on Ninth street. The building is handsomely decorated on the outside with flags of all nations, and the interior presents a magnificent scene.

All day yesterday and this morning hundreds of ladies were kept busy as bees in adorning the halls and arranging their booths, which are now literally loaded down with good things of all kinds. The display of flowers and plants throughout the various departments is great and beautiful.

It is hardly possible to give full justice to the ladies in a description of the scene. Still we can attempt a description that will show our readers what is being done for the home and the cancelling of the debt of $5,000 now resting on it.
